To the Ethics Commission:

Upon examination of the last bank statement, I discovered a canceled check that did not show up in the October bank statement that had been written on October 19; before the last report due date. Since some of the bills had to be paid at the time of purchase, the candidate wrote some of these checks directly, himself. I failed to check back with him enough days to record all of the outstanding checks at the time I submitted the last report.

Please accept this revised cover page and report of the omitted check to be included with the Roger Pine (State Senate) October 22 report. Thank you for allowing this opportunity to revise my report.

Sincerely,
